U.S. DEPARTMENT
For the Japanese Government of the Embassy of Japan at Washington, D.C. CRIMINAL DIVISION

1. Assistance to Educators

Registrant provided advice and resource materials to educators in various parts of the U.S. who were staging teacher workshops involving teaching about Japan and global perspectives.

2. Advice to the Japanese Government

Meetings were held in Washington, D.C. and Tokyo by Registrant and various officials of the Embassy and the Foreign Ministry of Japan to discuss projects for on-going and future public relations activities.

3. Participation in the annual meeting of the National Council for the Social Studies

Registrant organized a "Japan Hospitality Suite" at the 64th annual meeting of the National Council for the Social Studies, held November 15-19 in Washington, D.C., and distributed educational materials written and printed in Japan to the educators, free of charge.

4. Tour of Japan for NCSS/Japan Foundation Japan Study Teams

Registrant organized judging of applications for the 1984 NCSS/Japan Foundation Japan Study Tour in August, handled notification of winners and made arrangements for travel to Japan for seven two-person teams of social studies educators to visit Japan. The trip took place in September-October, and Registrant is handling follow-up coordination of the teams' teaching activities, development of curriculum materials on Japan, etc.

For Japan Air Lines, Ltd.

Registrant advises officials of JAL on promotional and publicity programs and periodically meets with executives of the company in their New York headquarters and with regional staff in San Francisco.

For the Japanese Government, through the Consulate General of Japan in San Francisco.

1. Assistance in preparing speeches in English

Registrant assists in drafting major speeches in English to be delivered by the Consul General to various civic and business groups on the status of the U.S.-Japanese relationship and the Japanese perspective of that relationship.

2. Advice, Counsel and General Assistance

Periodic meetings with officials of the Consulate General of Japan are held to give advice and counsel on various projects and activities undertaken by the Consulate General, such as press conferences.

For the Japan Institute for Social and Economic Affairs

1. Registrant began planning details of the 1985 JISEA Fellowship program, distributing printed announcements, publicizing the study travel opportunity through various state teacher publications, and answering myriad inquiries from social studies educators across the United States.
2. Registrant made travel arrangements for four U.S. Business School Deans who had been invited to visit Japan as guests of the JISEA in July, coordinated their requests for specific interviews and activities, and conducted a briefing in San Francisco prior to Deans' departure for Tokyo.
